

EVENTS FOR OCTOBER-DECEMBER 2022

Sir Antony Beevor: 12 October

Sir Antony Beevor (K, 1960-64) will be talking about his latest book: we are delighted that he will return to his old school to talk.

Studium: 19 October

This year's Studium promises to be an exciting morning, with speakers ranging from the climber and explorer Rebecca Stevens to the author and Royal biographer Robert Hardman.

Steve Brine MP: 3 November

We are delighted that Mr. Steve Brine, MP for Winchester and Chandler's Ford will come to Winchester to talk to the College's political society.

Douglas Russell & Sara Wheeler: 10 November

Apsley Cherry-Garrard (OW) was with Scott of the Antarctic during the 1910-13 expedition. His 1922 book 'The Worst Journey in the World' has been judged by the National Geographic the finest work of expedition literature ever written.

Recita: 11 November

Every year, pupils in the school compete through their divs (general studies classes) for a place in a public reading competition final.

Pseudium: 12 November

Pseudium gives dons the chance to talk about what interests them, and you the chance to return to the classroom.

Roger Morgan-Grenville: 23 November

Roger Morgan-Grenville led the first expedition to retrace successfully Shackleton's extraordinary journey across the island of South Georgia.

Adam Rutherford: 6 December

Science-writer and broadcaster Adam Rutherford will give the next talk in the Warden's Talks series.

Lt. Col. Ewen Southby-Tailyour: 7 December

We are honoured to have Lt. Col. Ewen Southby-Tailyour RM tell us why the Cockleshell raid is considered one of the finest deep-penetration raids of all time.
